

We need the FM translators. I listen to K-Love radio regularly. It has continuously supported me emotionally and spiritually. We need to keep radio stations like this, not make it more difficult for them to exist. This radio station serves all of the community, giving us positive, daily encouragement in a very frustrating world today. We need more positive and less negative. Keep the current FM translator service.